IR mine had many distinctions

Eighth in a Series
By Marcia Bernhardt

CASPIAN--Thanks to the appeal, new documents and resources are being turned in to help with the list of mining personnel for the Mining Memorial Hall. Readers should take note that this listing is for all personnel, not just miners, and includes laboratory and office staff, surface workers, police and others in addition to the underground workers.

The most recent acquisition containing names of workers came from the Florence, Wisconsin Historical Society. It is a ledger from the Iron River Mine.

The Iron River Mine had several distinctions. It was the oldest and largest early producer of iron ore on the west side of Iron County. Known by several names, it has been referred to as the Stambaugh Mine and also as the Riverton. The location of the workings was one-quarter mile due west of the initially platted village of Stambaugh and later extended to the Isabella to the south. Preliminary exploration work was done in the spring of 1880.

The ledger dated 1889 to 1896 and contained some headings that would not be unusual such as steam pumps, filling and timbering, drifting, cars/skips/derricks, and shaft house and skip roads. however, reflective of the times were headings such as carts/wagons/sleighs, barns, harnesses and horses.

Some interesting entries include shafts for buggies, $1; one buggy and cushion, $43.90; hose cart, $110; monthly forage (hay), $200; repairing buffalo robe $10; curry comb, 25 cents; and two sets of harness collars, $75. Shoeing horses was a regular expense as was a occasional team rental at $3.10.

A team was purchased for $360.

Expenses for the chemical laboratory ran from $10 to $50.50 per month. Explosives in 1889 for the period of August through December cost $12,573:83. Interesting expenditures in the building category included $2.25 for sweeping the chimney of the superintendent's residence and $999.37 spent on the Italian Boarding house and $1,385.59 on Captain Ball's house. An engine house expense was $10,353.16.

Telegraphy bills were a regular monthly expense and were around $8 or $10. Telephone rent in July 1891 was $28.34.

Names listed on the pay roll were J.N. Porte, superintendent, whose salary was $187.50 per month and other employees who received $45 per month. Names of workers may still be familiar today. Among them were George D. Crippens, E. Remberg, C. Nelson, C. Riebel, G.D. Crippen, Tom O'Malia, Gus Djupe, John Kust, John Anderson and John Farley.

DAD - WILLIAM JAUHIAINEN

To forget one's ancestors is to be a brook without a source,
a tree without a root.

—Chinese Proverb

Families are . . .
a place to go where one will always feel at home.

At the age of 25, Dad left Finland to escape being conscripted into the Russian army. He sailed on "The Saxonia" from England and arrived in Boston on the 9th of March 1907.
He became a citzen of the United States on the 7th of Dec. 1914 . This is recorded in Volume 6 – Numbeer 1347 – Certificate Number 523557 in Marquette, MI
He applied for a homestead of 160 acres of land in Republic, MI in 1912 and became owner of the land in 1917.
Being single, at the time, he built a one-story-two room house. (24 x 14)
He met Mom in 1914—married – and lived in the original home until Dad built a two-story log cabin in 1920.
From 1912 until 1926, Dad's occcupation was a farmer, homesteader. He built a saw mill and blacksmith shop. He hunted, fished and trapped small animals.
In 1918, Dad hired a young, Finnish school teacher. She lived in the original house and taught Eino, Then Donald, Matt and Sylvia. Plus the Neimi and Lyski children in the living room of our home. Sylvia told me that they left the house through the back door and came into the living room through the front door. The only ones to do so!!! Our company always came in the back door!
In 1926, a fire started in one of the barns and spread to the two houses. Very little of the possessions were saved. So Dad had to start over. He went to Iron River and got a job in the iron ores mines. He built a small house on Lay Avenue where we spent the rest of our childhood. We had a wonderful but poor, life. We always had a garden for fresh vegatables. Dad still hunted and fished. We had a cow for milk. Traded the milk for eggs and an occasional chicken for Sunday dinner. We children learned to pick blue berries. Raspberries, blackberries etc. which my mother made into jams and jellies. She canned a lot of the produce from our garden. Dad built a cold celler in the basement and we always had carrots, potatoes through the winter. So all in all, we were well off. The depression hit many families much harder. Dad died in 1938 and Mom in 1949.

Enjoy the little things in life. . .
for one day you may look back and realize they were the big things.

Houses are made of wood and stone, but only love can make a home.

We had a wonderful, happy childhood. So many friends and great neighbors. Dad got trailer loads full of sawdust from the mill and placed it on the empty corner lot. There the boys played baseball and football. At night, we would have a bonfire and sing. Leila Burbeck would play the guitar and someone the harmonica.
Dad built us girls a playhouse where we spent many happy hours. We sewed doll clothes By hand and designed new clothes for our paper dolls. We traded movie star pictures like The kid do today with their baseball cards. We jumped rope, played jacks. There would be About two doz or more kids who would get together and play games like –Run my good Sheep run – Kick the can – Red lite-Green Lite
To relax, we would swing on the double seated patio swing Dad built. Mom would bake on Wed and Sat. And, oh, how we loved the warm goodies! On New Year's Eve Dad would Tell our fortunes by the way heated lead would cool into different shapes. And, of course, We believed all of the made up fortunes! We enjoyed radio programs like Jack Benny, Fibber McGee and Molly, Lucky Strike Hit Parade – The Shadow Knows! Movies on Sat were a nickle and we could fill a small bag with penny candy!
We may have been monetarily poor, but oh, so rich, in family love, friends, fun and Happiness. To think that such wonderful innocent fun and childhood memories are – "Gone with the Wind!"

Jauhiainen Commended For Bravery

IRON RIVER, July 23—Staff Sgt. Donald Jauhiainen, recently decorated for meritorious service with the Fifth Air Force in Australia, was commended for bravery in a letter received here by his mother, Mrs. Tilda Jauhiainen, 517 Lay avenue, Iron River, from his commanding officer, Lieut. Gen. George C. Kenny.

The letter reads:

"Recently your son, Staff Sgt. Donald Jauhiainen, was decorated with the Air Medal. It was an award made in recognition of courageous service to his combat organization, his fellow American airmen, his country, his home and to you.

"He was cited for meritorious achievement while participating in an aerial fight over Kavieng Harbor, New England.

America's Sons In War

"He was radio operator of a B-17 type aircraft on a night bombing mission against shipping in the vicinity of the harbor. Despite heavy anti-aircraft fire, bombs were dropped and two direct hits were scored on a destroyer. Almost every hour of every day your son and the sons of other American mothers, are doing just such things as that here in the Southwest Pacific.

"There is a very real and very tangible contribution to victory and to peace.

"I would like to tell you how genuinely proud I am to have such as your son in my Command, and how gratified I am to know that young Americans with such courage and resourcefulness are fighting our country's battle against the aggressor nations.

"You, Mrs. Jauhianinen, have every reason to share that pride and gratification."

"Sgt. Jauhiainen has been in the Southwest Pacific more than a year and has been in the service 24 months. He is a radioman on a Flying Fortress.

His brother, Second Lieut. Matt Jauhiainen, is with the Ordnance department in South America.

After Glow

I'd like the memory of me
to be a happy one.
I'd like to leave an after glow
of smiles when life is done.
I'd like to leave an echo
whispering softly down the ways,
Of happy times and laughing times
and bright and sunny days.
I'd like the tears of those who grieve, to dry before the sun
Of happy memories that I leave

The 121st Psalm

I will lift up mine eyes unto the hills,
from whence cometh my help.
My help cometh from the Lord,
which made heaven and earth.

The Lord is thy keeper: the Lord is thy shade upon thy right hand.
The sun shall not smite thee by day,
nor the moon by night.
The Lord shall preserve thee from all evil:
He shall preserve thy soul.
The Lord shall preserve thy going out and thy coming in from this time forth, and even for evermore.
